I've spent 10+ years in marketing with the last 7 years owning B2B SaaS websites across strategy, growth, customer journeys, experimentation and analytics. That work has always sat close to Product Marketing: understanding the product, customer needs, competitive positioning and translating that into clear messaging and measurable customer experiences. I'm now looking to move upstream into Product Marketing, bringing a strong web, growth and technical perspective to positioning, launches, customer insight and GTM.

Impact Highlights

- Led a cross-functional relaunch of a 10K+ page enterprise site, improving lead quality, performance and delivery speed.
- Bridged customer search intent around a legacy product category to the strategic product journey, increasing core product demo MQLs by +48% QoQ.
- Scaled Drift chatbot bookings from $100K to $1M monthly.
- Increased organic traffic to lead conversion by +42% YoY and marketing-originated ARR from organic traffic by +54% YoY through CRO and A/B testing.

Core Strengths

- Positioning & customer journeys: translating product strategy into messaging, information architecture, and web experiences
- Customer & competitive intelligence: UX and customer research, competitor analysis, and behavioural data
- Growth & measurement: CRO, experimentation, analytics frameworks; and outcomes tied to leads, opportunities, and ARR
- Technical & AI fluency: bridging business and engineering; automation, prototyping, and analytics instrumentation

Skills and Tools

- Analytics: GA4, GTM, Adobe, Looker, Tableau
- Lead management: Marketo, Salesforce
- SEO: Semrush, Sitebulb
- CMS: ContentStack, Unbounce
- Experimentation & personalization: VWO, Drift
- AI & rapid prototyping: AI-assisted prototyping and automation for digital experiences, content workflows, analytics, and QA
- Technical fluency: Python, SQL, tracking governance
- English (fluent), Russian (native)

Employment history

Apr 2024 - present | Senior Manager, Website Strategy & Operations at Rapid7 (B2B) | Prague, Czech Republic

Own web strategy and roadmap, translating business priorities, customer intent, and growth opportunities into digital experience priorities. Act as the web and digital experience lead across Demand Gen, Paid, SEO, and Product Marketing, shaping how business goals and user intent translate into the website experience.

- Led cross-functional relaunch of a 10K+ page corporate website in 6 months.
- Launched an initiative bridging customer search intent around a legacy product category to the strategic product journey, increasing core product demo MQLs by +48% QoQ.
- Defined web growth strategy and scaled A/B testing and personalization programs, including a form optimization pilot that increased MQLs from targeted forms by 16%. Launched a message-match personalisation together with a paid digital team, resulting in a 2.4x conversion increase from 0.34% (non-personalized benchmark) to 0.82%.
- Increased web leads to opportunity conversion by +30% through form technical revamp.
- Owned technical SEO readiness for relaunch, improving Sitebulb health score from 75 to 90+.

- Built the web operations model: intake, SLAs, governance, release process, reporting rhythms, and stakeholder alignment.
- Led the analytics foundation workstream in partnership with an analyst: standardized definitions, set QA expectations, and aligned reporting to funnel outcomes to improve decision speed.

Sep 2019 - Apr 2024 | Principal Website Manager at Wrike (SaaS, B2B) | Prague, Czech Republic

Scope evolved from web operations within Marketing Ops to web growth ownership within Digital Marketing.

Growth & performance
